2.16 FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY ACT

Purpose:

To provide access to public information held by the College while protecting the privacy of personal information in compliance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FIPPA).

Policy:

1. The College will comply with FIPPA which gives members of the general public a legal right to access certain information held by the College as an agency of the Government. FIPPA also gives individuals the right to access their own personal information and establishes standards to ensure that this information is protected.
2. Access to Information
 - 2.1 Every person has the right to access a record or part of a record in the custody or under the control of the College unless the record or part of the record contains personal information or falls within one of the exemptions or exclusions listed below or provided for in FIPPA and the regulations.
 - 2.2 A person seeking access to a record shall:
 - 2.2.1 Make a request in writing to the Freedom of Information Officer;
 - 2.2.2 Provide sufficient detail to identify the record; and
 - 2.2.3 Pay the prescribed fee.
 - 2.3 The College shall refuse to disclose personal information to any person other than the individual to whom the information relates except:

- 2.3.1 Upon the prior written request or consent of the individual, subject to the exemptions and exclusions set out in FIPPA;
 - 2.3.2 In compelling circumstances affecting the health or safety of an individual;
 - 2.3.3 In accordance with the provisions of the FIPPA and the regulations.
- 2.4 The College shall refuse to disclose a record:
- 2.4.1 Where the disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with a law enforcement matter;
 - 2.4.2 Where the disclosure could reasonably be expected to reveal information received in confidence from another government body or its agencies;
 - 2.4.3 That reveals a trade secret or scientific, technical, commercial, financial, or labour relations information belonging to a third party;
 - 2.4.4 That contains information relating to specific tests, testing procedures or techniques that are used in the evaluation of students;
 - 2.4.5 That is subject to solicitor-client privilege; or
 - 2.4.6 In accordance with any of the other exemptions or exclusions in FIPPA.
- 3. Collection, Use and Disclosure of Personal Information
- 3.1 Personal information shall not be collected unless it is expressly authorized by statute, used for purposes of law enforcement, or necessary to the proper administration of a lawfully authorized activity.
- 3.2 The College shall collect personal information necessary to accomplish the College's academic and operational activities. The College collects and uses personal information for the following purposes:
- 3.2.1 Recruitment, admission and registration, academic programs and evaluations, graduation;
 - 3.2.2 Review, evaluation and improvement of academic and non-academic programs
 - 3.2.3 Financial assistance and awards;
 - 3.2.4 Alumni, development and marketing activities;
 - 3.2.5 Institutional planning, research and statistics;
 - 3.2.6 Reporting to government agencies and professional licensing bodies;
 - 3.2.7 Employment related matters;
 - 3.2.8 Safety and security;
 - 3.2.9 Promotion in its print, electronic and internet publications.
- 3.3 In order to facilitate these purposes to develop, maintain and improve appropriate programs, policies and recruitment strategies, measure program performance and evaluate future program needs, the College may aggregate or link personal information in different databases over which it has custody or control.
- 3.4 The College remains accountable for personal information under its control, including personal information which is disclosed to third parties for processing. The College will use

- contractual or other means to protect personal information that has been transferred to service providers for processing.
- 3.5 Personal information collected by the College may be collected, used and/or disclosed in other jurisdictions for processing, including in some cases to service providers located in the United States of America.
- 3.6 Personal information shall only be collected by the College directly from the individual to whom the information relates unless:
- 3.6.1 The information is collected by a third party and disclosed to the College with the consent of the individual if required and in accordance with that third party's privacy policies;
 - 3.6.2 The individual authorized another manner of collection;
 - 3.6.3 The information is collected for the purpose of determining suitability for an honour or award to recognize outstanding achievement or distinguished service;
 - 3.6.4 The information is collected for the purpose of the conduct of a proceeding or a possible proceeding before a court or tribunal;
 - 3.6.5 The information is collected for the purpose of law enforcement; or
 - 3.6.6 Otherwise in accordance with provisions of FIPPA and the regulations.
- 3.7 Where person information is collected, the College shall inform the individual to whom the information relates of the following:
- 3.7.1 The legal authority for the collection;
 - 3.7.2 The principal purpose(s) for which the information is intended to be used; and
 - 3.7.3 The address and telephone number of an employee who can answer questions about the collection.
- The College provides the information required by this section in a variety of ways, including through this policy, through Statements or notices posted on the College's website, on application or other forms, or in the Student Handbook, "Just the Facts".
- 3.8 Individuals have a right to "opt out" or withdrawn consent to some or all uses and/or disclosures of their personal information. Depending on the use or disclosure in questions, opting out or withdrawing consent may impact the College's ability to provide service to the individual and may even prevent the individual from continuing as a student or employee of the College. The extent to which an opt-out request can be granted without impacting the College's ability to provide services to the individual will be assessed on a case by case basis. Inquiries regarding opt-out and withdrawal of consent should be addressed to the FOI Officer.
- 3.9 The College shall not use personal information in its custody or under its control except:
- 3.9.1 Where the person to whom the information relates has identified that information in particular and consented to its use;

- 3.9.2 For the purpose for which it was obtained or compiled or for a consistent purpose; or
 - 3.9.3 Otherwise in accordance with provisions of FIPPA and the regulations.
- 3.10 The College shall not disclose personal information in its custody or under its control except:
- 3.10.1 As indicated in the “Just the Facts” Student Handbook or for the safety and well-being of the College and/or community or at the discretion of the College
 - 3.10.2 Where the person to whom the information relates has identified that information in particular and consented to its disclosure;
 - 3.10.3 For the purpose for which it was obtained or compiled or for a consistent purpose;
 - 3.10.4 Where the disclosure is made to a staff member, or consultant or agent engaged by the College, who needs the record in the performance of his or her duties and where disclosure is necessary and proper in the normal course of business;
 - 3.10.5 In compassionate circumstances to facilitate contact with the spouse, a close relative or friend of an individual who is injured, ill or deceased; or
 - 3.10.6 Otherwise in accordance with provisions of FIPPA and the regulations.
- 3.11 FIPPA permits the disclosure of personal information to an institution or a law enforcement agency in Canada to help an investigation undertaken with a view to a law enforcement proceeding or from which a law enforcement proceeding is likely to result. Any requests by policy for information regarding students, faculty or staff are to be directed to the Freedom of Information & Privacy Protection Coordinator to determine what personal information can be released and maintain a record of the request.
- 3.12 FIPPA shall not preclude the College from giving access to information in response to an oral request or in the absence of a request. Any existing practice for the release of information, which is not personal in nature, may continue at the discretion of the responsible Vice President.
- 3.13 The College shall provide any person with a right of access upon request to his or her own personal information in the College’s possession, provided it can be described with sufficient specific information to make it reasonably retrievable by the College. The right to access is subject to the exemptions and exclusions prescribed in FIPPA and the regulations.
- 3.14 Every individual who is given access to personal information is entitled to:
- 3.14.1 Request correction of the personal information where the individual believes there is an error or omission therein; and
 - 3.14.2 Require that a statement of disagreement be attached to the information reflecting any correction that was requested but not made.
- 3.15 All reasonable steps shall be taken to protect the security and confidentiality of personal information during its collection, storage, transportation, handling and destruction. All reasonable steps shall be taken to ensure that when personal information is to be destroyed, it is destroyed in such a way that it cannot be reconstructed or retrieved.

- 3.16 Information collected or created by the College shall be maintained in accordance with legislative or other record retention requirements.
- 3.17 The College at its discretion may choose to destroy records it is no longer obliged to protect and retain.
- 3.18 The College will provide information about its privacy policies and practices when and where appropriate, including by use of the Privacy Statement attached as Appendix 3.

4. Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Coordinator

- 4.1 Under FIPPA, the Chair of the Board of Governors, as designed head of the College, has power and duty to make decisions on requests to access College records. The Board of Governors shall delegate these powers and duties to an office of the College, the Vice President of College and Community Relations, who will act as the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Coordinator (FOI Officer).
- 4.2 The FOI Officer shall be responsible for the coordination of activities related to FIPPA.
- 4.3 The FOI Officer shall be the contact person for all public inquiries regarding FIPPA. Transfers, severance and third-party notification. The FOI Officer will rely on his/her knowledge of FIPPA and seek legal counsel, if necessary, to ensure that the College is in compliance with the legislation.
- 4.4 Each area of the College shall name a Records Coordinator who will coordinate the search and the release of records to the FOI Officer, at his/her request. The areas of the College are:
- President/Board of Governors
 - Academic Administration
 - Human Resources
 - Student Services
 - Strategic Planning
 - Advancement
 - Registrar's Office
 - Finance and Facilities
 - Employment Centre
- 4.5 The FOI Officer shall document information on all requests received, the rationale for decisions on access and the disposition of the requests. A tracking and recording system will be used to ensure that all requests are processed within the established time limits and to generate the statistics for the annual report to the Commissioner.
- 4.6 The FOI Officer shall require the assistance of the President and Vice Presidents to monitor compliance with the FIPPA privacy provisions and the notification requirements in FIPPA and in this policy.

APPENDIX 3

St. Clair College Privacy Statement

St. Clair College (the “College”) is committed to protecting the privacy of your personal information. The College at all times collects, uses and discloses personal information in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Personal Privacy Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. F.31 (“FIPPA”), and under authority of the Ontario Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology Act, 2002, S.O. 2002, c. 8, Sched. F, and other relevant legislation. The College’s personal information handling practices are set out in more detail in its Policy 7.2: Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy.

The College is required to report student-level enrolment-related data to the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities under the authority of the Ontario Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology Act, 2002, S.O. 2002, Chapter 8, Schedule F, and Section 6. The Ministry collects this data, which included limited personal information such as Ontario Education Numbers, student characteristics and educational outcomes, in order to administer government postsecondary funding, policies and programs, including planning, evaluation and monitoring activities. Information collected by the College is used for educational, administrative and statistical purposes of the College and/or ministries and agencies of the Government of Ontario and the Government of Canada.

Further information on the collection and use of student-level enrolment-related data can be obtained from the Government of Ontario or Ministry of Training Colleges and Universities websites or by writing to the Director, Postsecondary Finance Branch, Postsecondary Education Division, 7th Floor, Mowat Block, 900 Bay Street, Toronto, ON M7A 1L2.

The College collects personal information at several points of contact. It collects personal information from prospective students during marketing and recruitment campaigns and during the application process. It collects personal information from current students at various times and in various ways throughout their tenure with the College. It may collect personal information from alumni after their tenure at the College. It collects personal information from staff at various times and in various ways in the course of the employment relationship.

Personal Information is collected and used for several reasons. In the case of prospective students, information is collected and used primarily for the purpose of making admissions-related decision, including initial contact with the students, the creation, processing and maintenance of student applications, acceptance and registration with the College. In the case of students whose applications are accepted and current students of the College, information collected before or after enrolment is also collected for the purposes of administering the student’s studies at the College and to assist the College in providing academic and other services to the student. Information collected from prospective or current students before or after enrolment may also be used for the purposes of statistical analysis, research and marketing. It may also be aggregated, linked to other data, or otherwise used by the College for the purposes of reviewing, improving and developing College programs, policies and recruitment strategies, measuring program performance and assessing future program needs. In the case of College staff, information is collected primarily for the purpose of managing the employment relationship.

Personal information may also be used or disclosed for purposes reasonably consistent with these purposes. Specific purposes for the collection of information will be set out at the time of collection where required and where distinct from the above. If no purpose is indicated, the information is collected and will be used for the above purposes, or purposes reasonably consistent with those set out above, subject to the provision of FIPPA.

The College will use or disclose personal information where reasonably necessary to achieve the purposes for which it was collected or where authorized or required by law to do so. The College may also make available personal information, as required, to third parties who provide services reasonably necessary to the College's operations, or to the achievement of the purposes stated above. On occasions, personal information may be collected, uses and/or disclosed in jurisdictions outside of Ontario. Personal information in different databases in the custody or control of the College may also be linked or aggregated in order to achieve the purposes set out above.

By providing your personal information to the College, you consent to the use or disclosure of personal information as set out above and to the extent necessary to fulfil these purposes. You have a right to withdraw your consent to the use or disclosure of your personal information, however this may have an impact on the College's ability to provide services to you, including in the case of current students your ability to continue in your studies at the College. Students wishing to withdraw consent in full or in part to the use or disclosure of their personal information should contact the FOI Officer for more information on the consequences of withdrawing consent.

The College will take all reasonable measures to safeguard personal information in its control, including but not limited to physical, technical and operational measures. The College will require, by contract or otherwise, that any third-party service provider to whom personal information is transferred has adequate policies and safeguards in place to protect that information. The College will ensure that information which is disposed of in accordance with College policies and all applicable regulations is destroyed securely and in a manner which protects the privacy of the information holder.

You have a right of access to your personal information in the control of the College, subject of the terms of FIPPA and its regulations. To make such a request, or if you have questions about this Statement or about the College's personal information practices, please contact:

Freedom of Information Officer
2000 Talbot Rd.
Windsor, ON N9A 6S4
Telephone: 519-972-2727 ext. 2762

If you have a complaint about the College's handling of your personal information, please contact the FOI Coordinator. If your complaint is not resolved to your satisfaction, FIPPA provides a mechanism for independent review by contacting the Information and Privacy Commissioner of Ontario.
